Lenten Communion
March 7, 2021
3rd Sunday in Lent

Welcome and Introduction with Rev. Dr. Leigh Ann Shaw

All who earnestly regret their past mistakes and seek a new relationship with God are welcome to the Table of Thanksgiving.

Please get out some bread and juice or other common elements to remember the Last Supper. Jesus sets the table for everyone.

Opening Prayer

The Lord be with you, and with thy spirit.

Holy One, our heart is open to you, all that we are is revealed. Heal our wounds and restore us through the Spirit, so that we may love as you love, and give thanks every day. Amen.

Scripture with Pastor Frank Hallock
1 Corinthians 11:23-26 NRSV

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

This is the word of God for the people of God.
We give thanks for the Word made flesh.

Prayer of Confession and Pardon

Holy One, Creator of all things and judge of all people, we acknowledge our failures and willful unkindness. We name before you our lack of compassion for our neighbor, and our family. We hoard up for ourselves resources which would give life to others. By our choices, we prevent others from what they need. We sincerely repent for the ways we have fallen short. Show us mercy. Forgive our past and let this season of Lent be a new beginning. Amen.

Words of Comfort and Assurance

Jesus says, “Come to me, all who are weary and carrying a heavy burden and I will give you rest.”

In the name of God, you are forgiven.

Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

with Rev. Dr. Leigh Ann Shaw and Rev. Frank Hallock

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing....

...and so we rejoice with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven as we join the unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

God who summons everyone who thirsts to come and drink....

...And so, in remembrance of these acts of Jesus Christ, together we proclaim the Great mystery of our faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

God of all flourishing, through the fast of Lent...

...your creation shall be, at last, wholly fruitful in you,

One God, Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread and Sharing of the meal

Because there is one love, one family of creation, one life with each other,

We have one loaf of bread here and in every home, made from common grain, and broken with an echo from place to place.

And we have one cup poured here and in every home,

the grapes of the earth, crushed and juiced, the sweetness of life.

In this way, we recognize our common connection through time and place,

And Jesus who brings us together at the table.

This is the body of Christ, given for you.

This is the life of Christ, poured out for you.

Closing Blessing

We give thanks for this remembrance of the Holy Mystery

And the meal which sustains us in times of wilderness and all living. Send us now, into our days, in the strength of your Spirit, to live our faith. Amen.
